Ricardo Sanchez discussed his resignation. He mentioned that TAS great place to work.

BOARD PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS AND REPORT

1. Board President comments:

Thrilled to be here as he drove up to the school and noticed exterior improvements, facilities are nice and it is good to see everyone. The school was so quiet and orderly with students in classrooms that he wouldn't think school was in session. It takes a team effort for all of this incredible work. Also, thanked the CEO and staff for preparation for board meeting and materials. Requested to have the American flags added to Multi-Purpose Room. Mr. Nizetich brought them back from backstage.

CEO'S PRESENTATION AND REPORT

No Public Comments

1. CEO's Comments

- a. Highlighted TAS Mission through Bethany Santana, WAHS Annenberg Scholarship, who was enrolled in TAS since kindergarten in 2009 and had a GPA of 4.19. She is attending UCLA.
- b. Highlighted TAS Vision of private and public partnership and thanked board member Professor E. Weiss and Professor L. Picus as our guest speakers and board representatives at our annual kick off day. Both board members shared their long history with The Accelerated Schools prior to them joining as board members. We will be inviting our other board members to speak at future events.
- c. Enrollment update: LAUSD will capture enrollment on September 23, 2022. CEO shared beginning of the year enrollment numbers that will be reflected in our future budget updates.
- d. Facilities upgrades and campus beautification updates. TAS Board has invested over $800k recently on facilities upgrades and campus beautification. CEO thanked Director of Operations, Facilities Director, and Technology Director for their teamwork.
